

Ogden A. A. to Hold Gala Athletic Card Here Armistice Day

Grid Contest Between Locals and University of Utah Frosh to Be Feature Event of Day; Creed Haymond to Star in Handicap Sprint Races; Other Classy Events Being Arranged by Local Organization

What gives promise of being a great athletic card will be held in Ogden November 11, Armistice day by the Ogden Athletic association.

The afternoon will be given over entirely to sport events the feature event of the day being the grid contest between the Ogden Athletic association's fast grid machine and the University of Utah Froshmen. Sprint races, in which Creed Haymond, star of the local club will be pitted against a field of stars, a four mile team race and other features will be on the program. Haymond will handicap any man in the state from 100 to 25 yards in the century and will handicap up to 25 yards in the future.

The grid contest which will be the opening feature of the afternoon card will be started at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Coach Tittle Olsen's stars at the crimson fair are working hard for the contest and are expected to give the locals a beating. In Hall, Hagen, Mitchell, Jeppson and Marshall and Smith. Olsen has a class aggregation of stars. He will bring twenty-three players to Ogden to give the locals a beating.

Officials for the grid game will be named next week while officials for the track events will also be named. The locals will present the same aggregation of stars against the "U" players in the Armistice day contest.

FUN PROMISED WHEN WAGS MEET GEORGES READY FOR MIT TILTS

Housecleaning to Be One of Features, Says Clarke Griffith

When the magnates of the American and National leagues get together late in the winter, or after the Chicago scandal has been brushed off the desk and plans made for the 1921 campaign, there is going to be a thorough housecleaning of old grudges, according to Ban Johnson and Clark Griffith.

There is going to be a gentle but firm probe of the repeated reports that the Conesky-Frazee-Ruppert combination has worked diligently all during the 1920 season to prevent the Cleveland team from purchasing a much needed southpaw pitcher. Also there will be a little light thrown on the information that the St. Louis-Louis-Chicago combination lost quite a bit of sleep to prevent McGraw from landing Hornsby or Marmol.

Griffith has already styled the alleged contention of the Chicago Cubs and the Cleveland Indians as absolutely dangerous to the success of organized baseball. He wants the members of these various combinations to get together and settle their differences by making specific mention of this particular affair.

With Chicago's seven of her real stars, Griffith believes this winter to be the ideal time to approach the "boys" with a proposition of peace within as well as without. The Washington owner says Conesky must have some assistance from his associate magnates or stand to lose thousands of dollars for several years while building his club, and with Conesky in favor of an absolute showdown the Washington owner says it will be easy to line up the other side.

Owner Dunn, of the Cleveland team, has never made formal complaint against the so-called conspiracy, but he has committed to length several times when his offers for southpaw pitchers of only ordinary calibre were sneered at by clubs apparently out of the flag race. Dunn will be asked to make formal complaint in order that the matter can be brought to the surface and remedied suggested.

INDIANS MAKE QUICK CHANGES IN SERIES

The Cleveland Indians, winners of the world's baseball championship, probably set a new record for dress in the annual games. In their first game at home they appeared in new white uniforms. In their practice before this game, however, they appeared in their old "at home" garb, and when the Dodgers were on the field for practice, Speaker and his tribe went to the dressing room and changed. The crowd didn't "get" the change at once, but when the entire flock slipped out into view they got a great hand.

The first time in any world series team changed uniforms after the practice period before a game.

DUNDEE OUT OF GAME ON ACCOUNT OF ILLNESS

Johnny Dundee, New York lightweight, will probably not enter the ring again before December. Dundee has been having a severe case of stomach trouble, and several weeks ago placed himself under the care of a specialist. The Fighting "Wop" was obliged to give up training entirely. He hopes to get on with Benny Leonard in a 16 round decision affair in New York City in January.

SMITH COMES

Mike Donlin, former big league hitting star, now a successful actor, ventures the opinion that in Elmer Smith the Cleveland Indians have a chance hitter who will some day rival Speaker or Sauer.

"His position at the plate is free and easy and he is a natural hitter," said Mike. Donlin added there was no luck about Smith's hit.

BROWNS AFTER STAR BASEBALL SLUGGER

There is no chance for the Pittsburgh Pirates in their attempts to get back from the St. Louis Cardinals, but there is a chance for the Pirates to deal with the Cards in some way that will land Outfielder Nicholson in the Browns' aggregation, according to Branch Rickey. St. Louis had a chance to get Nicholson when the Pirates grabbed him, but Rickey thought the youngster was a false alarm. The past season his timely hitting saved a number of games for the Dreyfuss crew.

FORMER GRID STARS USED AS PATTERNS Coach Wilce Trains O. S. U. Men In Harley-Schultz Methods

BY HAL COCHRAN
N. E. A. Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—Ohio State University threatened to have a "Chick" Harley and a "Germany" Schultz on its gridiron eleven this season, not in actuality, but in theory.

"Chick" Harley is looked upon as the one best halfback of all time, by Coach Wilce, of the Ohio state football crew. He stepped into the football hall of fame last season when he played a big part in the Ohio college, going through the season with only one loss.

FAMOUS STYLES.

"Germany" Schultz will be remembered by the football world as the prince of center and gridiron hero of Michigan University a few seasons back.

Today Schultz and Harley are not at school. But Coach Wilce, who has closely watched the play of the starvets of the pigskin pastime, refuses to let their famous styles of play die.

He has a line of men in the O. S. U. football crew, who are the possibility of a new Harley and a new Schultz. And Harley is adding Wilce in the training camp.

"HARLEY" SHUTT.

Harley was especially noted for the famous "Harley" shutt. This home made bit of football was the pet dread of opposing tacklers last season. Harley made many sensational open field runs through the assistance of his shutt.

Wilce has wished the big task of perfecting this play upon Stinchcomb. And already results are beginning to show. In Ohio State's game with Purdue, Stinchcomb pulled the "Harley shutt" with success. And he looked, in many respects, like the famous halfback in his playing moments.

WILLAMAN'S GAME.

"Germany" Schultz was probably the greatest punter in the game. He played but three yards back in his defensive game.

Willaman is playing the same game. He's developed into a powerful punter, and he sticks within the three-yard limit on the defensive.

If Ohio State's football season had ended eight minutes sooner last season, the eleven would have been an undoubtedly one. Just before the final whistle in 1919, Illinois kicked a goal and handed Wilce's crew the only disappointment of the year.

Coach Wilce, Fullback Willaman and Halfback Stinchcomb form a triangle that promises to make history for Ohio State University. Willaman is being trained in the "Germany" Schultz style of football and Stinchcomb in the "Chick" Harley style. And Wilce is doing the training. Stinchcomb is shown at the start of the famous "Harley shutt." When the tackler plunges in the runner bends away at the waist, letting the tackler slip by, and at the same time the runner gives the tackler an arm-punch which flops the tackler and leaves the runner free.

WILCE OPTIMISTIC.

This season Wilce looks for a clean sweep. He has a line of men which looks even better than his 1919 squad. And he expects the veteran pickers of All-Western teams and of All-American teams to name several of his men when the season winds up.

Workman, at quarterback, is a demon at forward passing. He heaves the oval 55 to 60 yards with telling accuracy. It is his first season on the varsity, but he has already developed

FOOTBALL RESULTS OHIO STATE WINS IN FOURTH

Wisconsin's Championship Aspirations Smashed in Last Frame of Gridiron Contest

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 23.—Coming from behind in the last minute of play and duplicating the feat of Illinois last year when they won the Western conference championship here, Ohio State through "Hobbs" Workman and "Pete" Stinchcomb, wrecked Wisconsin's championship aspirations today, defeating them 13 to 7.

A 35-yard forward pass from H. Workman to Stinchcomb, who raced 29 yards for a touchdown ended the game.

Wisconsin made her touchdown eleven minutes after the start of the first period and kicked goal. For three periods the Buckeyes fought a grueling battle. In the fourth period the Badger defense began to weaken and the Buckeyes started to march toward the goal, heralded by a bewildering array of passes. Stinchcomb failed to tie the score with a goal, the ball hitting the upright and bounding back into mid-field. With nine minutes to play, the Buckeyes increased their passes until, with the gain almost lost, and the crowds leaving, they clinched the game with a long pass from midfield.

Wisconsin's touchdown was preceded by a long forward pass, from H. Workman to Stinchcomb, who raced 29 yards for a touchdown.

Score by periods:

Ohio State	0	0	0	13
Wisconsin	7	0	0	7

STAR FORFEITS RIGHT TO BATTLE IN SERIES

If Larry Gilbert, hard hitting outfielder of the New Orleans club, gets a chance to play with Cleveland in the 1921 campaign, it is a cinch he will be on the job. The New Orleans star had a chance to trail along with Speaker's crew this year, but Gilbert preferred to play in New Orleans where he is interested in a garage business. When the Indians won the American league pennant, Larry got his first attack of regret, and when they finally went through and copped the world's title, Gilbert was downright sick.

LEONARD CARRIES WICKED KNOCKOUTS BODIE RECOVERING FROM ANKLE INJURY

Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard is getting quite particular after nine years of battling between the bempen strands. "Bennah" takes exception to the statement of a number of sport scribes that he studied for months to perfect a knockout punch. He says his punch came to him naturally, but that not until he knocked out Joe Mandot, the New Orleans baker boy, did he realize the real value of such a wallop. Leonard does not relish the idea that the acquiring of a punch called for special study.

YALE TROUNCES W. VIRGINIA

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 23.—Yale trounced West Virginia 24 to 0 today in a game with few features. Runs by Frank Kelley and Kempton paved the way for touchdowns. The play was largely in the territory of the visitors.

Syracuse by a victorious attack, and with the aid of Foster, a substitute, scored a touchdown. Fongone kicked goal.

ARMY'S EASY GAME

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Army won from Tufts today 28 to 6 in an interesting contest in which West Point used only second string men.

Score by periods:

Army	14	7	7	28
Tufts	6	0	0	6

THREE LEADERS IN WORLD OF SPORT

Babe Ruth, Man o' War and Jack Dempsey, Have Made History During Year

America has produced three champions during the present year that have no equal in the world of sport. The three champions, Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, and Man o' War, have made history in the world of sport. They are unquestionably the greatest trio of champions ever represented on this side of the pond.

Dempsey is the champion of the world with the boxing gloves, Man o' War is equally superlative of the world, while Babe Ruth leads 'em all in baseball.

Take the case of Dempsey. What a wonderful boxer he is. Prior to July 4, 1919, we had a champion known in the sport world as Jess Willard. Willard looked like a novice in his contest against the present champion, despite the fact that he outweighed the champion more than fifty pounds. Since that time Dempsey has reached the top of his career. He is a champion who at this time has no real rival. The man in his class is deserving of a possible exception of Carpenter are second rates. The present champion carries a wallop in either hand. He is the peer of 'em all.

Babe Ruth is the greatest in his line. Any major league baseball star who can crack out a half a hundred home runs in one season is deserving of a position in the hall of fame. The batting accomplished by Ruth this season has never before been registered in the baseball world. It is perhaps never will be again unless Ruth does it.

The American and National leagues have produced some wonderful sticklers. Take Ty Cobb, George Sauer, Lou Gehrig, Tris Speaker and others in their day were regarded as stars of the first order. They have won places in the hall of fame.

Man o' War—his steady head and shoulder above the other race horse champions of the world. Upset, On Watch, John Gier, Donatona and Donatona are good names, but they are in a different class. Man o' War has shattered no less than five world records during the present year. He is the class of them. Where are the champions to rival these?

CHESSE CHAMPS TO MEET FOR HONORS IN CUBA CITIES

When Jose R. Capablanca, Cuban chess master, finally solves the championship—which he expects to do in his meeting with Dr. Lasker in Havana in January—he is going to make a record for himself. He is going to lay down a code of set in a different class. Man o' War has shattered no less than five world records during the present year. He is the class of them. Where are the champions to rival these?

Michigan Eliminated By Illinois, 7 to 6

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 23.—By the margin of a point after touchdowns, Illinois virtually eliminated Michigan from the Western conference championship race today when it won 7 to 6.

Michigan scored its touchdown in the second period on a 75-yard run by Dunn, who intercepted a forward pass. He failed to kick goal.

A forward pass paved the way for Illinois' touchdown in the third period. Reaching the 20-yard line, Walquist, Illinois right halfback, tossed to Ralph Fletcher, who carried the ball over. Fletcher kicked goal.

The Wolverines fought hard to save the game in the final period. Illinois was placed on the defensive, but the Wolverines could not deliver.

O. A. A. Gets Field for Armistice Day

Permission has been granted by the Ogden City board of commissioners to the Ogden Athletic association for the use of the football field at Lorin Farr park, November 11, Armistice day. On that date the association will feature a game with the University of Utah freshmen team.

Creed Haymond, famous Utah sprinter will also appear at the park connection with the football program and will participate in several track events which have been arranged as an added attraction.

ACTIVE LIFE NEEDED IN HORSE CLASSICS

The retirement of the American champion runner, Man o' War from the racing game, the breeding farm has stirred the veterinary scientists, many of whom claim the great horse will not live long in idleness. It has been pointed out that during his racing days, Man o' War has greatly developed his heart and lungs, and will mean that the heart will have nothing to compensate it, and weakness is almost certain to follow. The cases of Lee Asworthy and St. Frisco, two sensational trotters, which died soon after entering retirement, are cited to prove the need of an active life for horses trained for great speed.

TRAVIS WILL BECOME GOLF COURSE EXPERT

Walter J. Travis, who resigned recently as editor of The American Golfer, has decided to become a soil and grass expert, so that he may be able to use his knowledge in connection with his work as a golf course architect. During the winter Travis will study at several leading eastern agricultural colleges, and early in the spring will witness a number of experiments by some eastern seedmen.
